What we do well.

- My child really enjoys school.
- The school has helped bring my child out of her shell.
- Brilliant school.
- Making teaching fun and involving all the children and parents.
- I am happy with the way my child is improving.
- Keeping parents informed.
- Everything.
- Another brilliant term. Thank you for all your support.
- Everything is done to a high standard in school.
- Fantastic school and teachers.
- I am over the moon with the progress my child is making.
- I love the invites to mother's day treats it's very thoughtful. Listen to parent's views and concerns. Running groups for parents, the way the children are taught.
- Listen to complaints and sort them.

What we could improve.

- Inform us on things coming up so we have more time to prepare. Especially dressing up events.
- Doing parent activities on different days so that some parents that work can still join in on other days.
- More parent clubs in school time.
- Take little longer to understand disruptive behaviour before removing dojo points.
- Bullying.
- Nothing
- Communication between parents and carers between sickness and illness needs to improve.
- I think things are great the way they are.
